PRESS STATEMENT

MCCBCHST: MERRY CHRISTMAS TO FELLOW MALAYSIAN OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

1. The Malaysian Consultative Council of Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Sikhism and Taoism (MCCBCHST) takes this opportunity to wish fellow Malaysians of the Christian faith a joyful Christmas celebration.

2. While the belief in GOD is a personal matter, this should not stop us from being happy when fellow citizens of a different faith celebrate a day which is significant to his or her religious belief.

3. Racial, religious and cultural diversity will always be our pillar of our strength. Together we must continue to uphold it and not play up to the disruptive tune of those with mischievous ambitions to distract and divide us. In fact, it is long overdue that we move on from mere tolerance to celebrating our unique differences.

4. A happy and prosperous nation is where its citizens are united, live with honour, confidence and dignity, guided by inclusive, stable and trusted leadership which treats every citizen justly and fairly, not that divides or mocks another and/or their religious belief.

5. The MCCBCHST therefore prays that Malaysia remains blessed with peace, harmony and prosperity. Merry Christmas!
