ANNOUNCEMENT OF INCOMING EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

The Christian Federation of Malaysia (CFM) is pleased to announce that Mr Richard Chia Kee Kong will assume the position of Executive Secretary of the Christian Federation of Malaysia with effect from 1 October 2026, succeeding Rev Andy Chi, who has faithfully served in this role for the past two and a half years.

Mr Richard Chia Kee Kong brings with him a wealth of experience in both the corporate and Church sectors. He has been actively involved in the Catholic Church for the past four decades as a lay volunteer, while at the same time serving as a management professional in the corporate world.

Upon reaching the retirement age of 60, Richard responded to the opportunity to serve the Church in a full-time capacity. He is currently engaged in full-time ministry with the Catholic Church, serving principally in the secretariat to the Catholic Bishops representing the eleven Catholic dioceses in Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei.

In this capacity, Richard has been involved in liaising with the Holy See (Vatican), the Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC), Catholic dioceses and Church bodies around the world, as well as numerous organizations both within and beyond the Catholic Church.

His extensive experience in administration, management, coordination and ecumenical and international engagement will be a valuable contribution to CFM as we continue to serve the Christian community in Malaysia and strengthen relationships among the different Christian traditions.

The CFM Executive Committee warmly welcomes Richard to this new responsibility. We ask our members and the wider Christian community to uphold Richard in prayer as he takes on this important ministry.

The CFM Executive Committee expresses its deepest gratitude and appreciation to Rev Andy Chi for his dedicated service as Executive Secretary of CFM over the past two and a half years.

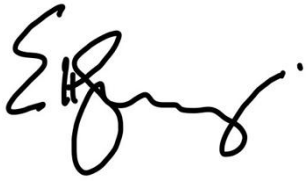

During his tenure, Rev Andy has served with commitment, humility and a deep concern for the unity and witness of the Christian community in Malaysia. His contribution to CFM, his engagement with the Churches and Christian organizations, and his efforts in strengthening relationships across the Christian community are greatly valued.

As Rev Andy moves forward in his calling and continues in his current position as Secretary-General of the National Evangelical Christian Fellowship Malaysia (NECF), the CFM Executive Committee gives thanks to God for his ministry and partnership with CFM.

We pray that the Lord will continue to guide, strengthen and bless Rev Andy as he undertakes his responsibilities with NECF, and that God will use him mightily for the building up of the Body of Christ and for the advancement of His Kingdom in Malaysia.

May God grant CFM wisdom, unity and grace as we continue to serve the Church, strengthen Christian fellowship, and bear faithful witness to Christ in Malaysia.
